

Potomac Watershed Partnership

Agenda Winter 2014 Information Exchange December 9, 2014

DRAFT as of 11/13/2014

Topic: Livable Communities- Greening Our Urban Landscapes

- 10:30-10:45 Doors Open & Registration
- 10:45-11:00 Greetings
- 11:00- 11:45 Trees for Sacred Places
-Lou Etgen, Maryland Director, Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay & Jodi Rose of the Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake
- 11:45-12:00 Community Environmental Management
-Alana Hartman, WV Department of Environmental Protection
- 12:00- 1:00 LUNCH – Brown Bag
- 1:00- 1:45 Real Forestry for Real Estate: Enlisting New Audiences to Expand your Outreach
-Craig Highfield, Program Manager: Forests for the Bay, Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay
- 1:45-2:00 Trees for Bees
-Herb Peddicord, Chesapeake Bay Watershed Forester, WV Division of Forestry
- 2:00-2:15 Break
- 2:15-3:00 Green Infrastructure at Multiple Scales: How to Regreen and Relink the Urban Landscape
-Karen Firehock, Executive Director, Green Infrastructure Center
- 3:00-3:45 “Greening” the Forest Patches—Baltimore’s Forgotten Treasure
-Katie Lautar, Program Manager, Baltimore Green Space
- 3:45 Announcements and Survey
- 4:00 Thank you for attending!

PWP is coordinated by:

Cacapon Institute

PO Box 68
High View, WV
26808

(304)856-1385

www.cacaponinstitute.org

PWP Steering Committee includes Cacapon Institute and:

Hosted at: Mary Jane & James
L. Bowman Library

